00 — CONTEXT

The Summer Brief

Summer in Dubai empties the city of tourists and sends many GCC nationals abroad. But it leaves behind a high-value residual market of entrepreneurs, corporate marketing teams, and expat professionals — people with more free time and real intent to act. Our ads speak exclusively to them.

CORE STRATEGIC INSIGHT

Summer is not a threat — it is a selection filter. The people still in Dubai in July and August are the most committed, most motivated professionals. They did not leave because they are building something. These are our ideal clients. Every ad in this brief is written for them.

ADS READY TO LAUNCH	VIRAL FORMATS (REEL)	CONVERSION FORMATS	TARGET AUDIENCES

WHAT WE ARE NOT DOING

No price-war messaging. No "50% off" panic discounts. No begging for bookings. Every line of copy protects the premium brand that built DPS's #1 Google Review position. Summer deals are framed as access, not desperation.

CREATIVE PRINCIPLE

Hook in 1.5 seconds (thumb-stop). Identity tap (speak to who they think they are, not what they do). One clear CTA. Each ad tested with two copy variants — headline A/B only, same visual, to isolate the winning message fast.

AD 01 OF 04

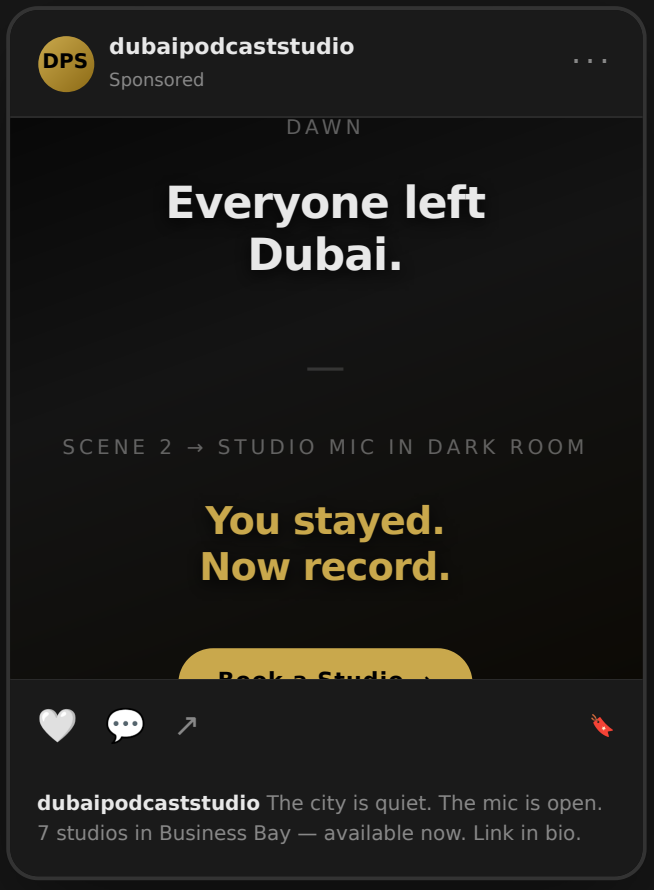

"While They Left, You Build"

Reel · 15-22 sec | Viral / Brand Awareness | Reach + Engagement

THE PSYCHOLOGY

Dubai's entrepreneur culture runs on contrarianism and status. The "while everyone else does X, I do Y" narrative is the single most shareable format in GCC social media — because it flatters the viewer's identity. This ad doesn't sell a studio. It sells a self-image. People screenshot this and send it to friends. That is free reach.

INSTAGRAM REEL PREVIEW

FULL AD SCRIPT — REEL (22 SEC)

HOOK (0-2S) Black screen. White text fades in: "Everyone left Dubai."

SCENE 1 (2–6S)	Slow aerial or timelapse of empty Dubai Marina highway at 6am. No voiceover. Silence hits.
TEXT CUT (6–8S)	"Bali. Paris. Thailand." — each word flashes on screen, pauses.
SCENE 2 (8–13S)	Cut hard. Dark studio. A person sits down, adjusts headphones. Pulls the mic close. Studio lights warm up.
TEXT CUT (13–17S)	"You stayed. Now record." — gold type. Holds 3 seconds.
END CARD (17–22S)	DPS logo. "7 Studios · Business Bay · From 299 AED" — CTA button: BOOK YOUR SESSION
MUSIC	Low, cinematic build — no lyrics. Goes slightly louder at Scene 2 cut. (Try: Epidemic Sound "Late Night Drive" type.)
CAPTION	"The city is quiet. The mic is open. DPS Studios — Business Bay, Dubai. Link in bio."

VARIANT A — IDENTITY

"Everyone left Dubai. You stayed. Now record."

VARIANT B — ACTION

"While they're on vacation, you're building your brand."

Why This Goes Viral

- ✓ Pattern interrupt: silence + empty city = thumb-stop guaranteed
- ✓ Identity flattery: "I'm the one who stayed and worked" — people repost this
- ✓ No selling in first 13 seconds — it earns attention before asking
- ✓ Hard cut from empty city → studio warmth = emotional contrast dopamine

"The Summer Membership Drop"

Static + Carousel · 5 slides | Direct Response | Conversions / Leads

THE PSYCHOLOGY

Summer is when people make decisions they've been postponing. "I've always wanted to start a podcast" becomes real in July when meetings drop, schedules open, and the mental bandwidth finally arrives. This ad creates urgency around a deal — but frames the deal as exclusive access, not desperation. "Summer Membership" sounds like a limited launch, not a discount.

CAROUSEL AD — 5 SLIDES

01	02	03	04	05
You've been meaning to start for 6 months.	Summer just opened your calendar.	7 studios. Business Bay. From 1,600 AED/mo.	AI Reels included. Editing done for you.	Summer Member spots: limited.

← swipe → (carousel stops people, last slide creates urgency)

SLIDE-BY-SLIDE COPY

SLIDE 01 "You've been saying 'I'll start my podcast' for 6 months." — Dark gold background. Bold 24px. This line is the hook — it's personal, it's true, it stings slightly.

SLIDE 02 "Summer just opened your calendar." — Minimal dark card. One sentence. Reframes summer as the gift of time, not an obstacle.

SLIDE 03 "DPS Studios — Business Bay. 7 professional studios. Memberships from 1,600 AED/month." — Studio photo background, minimal overlay. Product reveal.

SLIDE 04 "AI-powered Reels from every session. Editing done for you. Your voice, everywhere — automatically." — Feature proof. Removes the "I don't have time to edit" objection.

SLIDE 05 "Summer Member spots are limited. Don't wait until September." — Urgency close. Gold background, CTA button: CLAIM YOUR SPOT.

CAPTION "The podcast you've been putting off. The summer you finally have time. DPS Members get studios on demand, AI content creation, and full editing. Limited summer spots available. Link in bio."

A/B HEADLINE TEST

VARIANT A — GUILT

"You've been saying 'I'll start my podcast' for 6 months."

VARIANT B — OPPORTUNITY

"Summer is the best time to launch a podcast. Here's why."

Why This Converts

- ✓ Slide 01 speaks directly to the procrastinator mind — feels personalised, earns the swipe
- ✓ Carousel format keeps people on the ad 4–6 seconds longer than static — more scroll depth = more intent signal to the algorithm
- ✓ "Spots limited" is true (studio capacity exists) — urgency without dishonesty
- ✓ Objection removal built into slide 04: editing handled, no creative dependency on the client

"The September Advantage"

Reel · 30 sec | Viral / Social Proof | Brand Trust + Retargeting

THE PSYCHOLOGY

This is the "transformation narrative" — the most trusted format in content marketing, benchmarked against ads by Gymshark, Morning Brew, and Notion. The structure is always: relatable starting point → moment of decision → clear result. It works because people project themselves into the protagonist. We are not selling a studio. We are selling September: the month they come back ahead.

REEL SCRIPT — 30 SEC (TESTIMONIAL STYLE)

HOOK (0-3S) Direct to camera: person sitting in DPS studio. Candid. They say: "Honestly, I almost didn't record this summer." — No title card. No logo. Raw open.

STORY (3-12S) Quick cut to laptop, empty calendar. They continue: "It felt like the wrong time. Dubai was quiet, everyone was away." Text overlay: "June 2026."

TURN (12-18S) Cut to them recording at the mic — headphones on, focused. VO: "I booked 12 sessions over the summer. Just to build the habit."

RESULT (18-24S) Phone screen showing podcast stats. VO: "September came. I had 3,000 listeners before anyone else had even started." Text: "September 2026."

CLOSE (24-30S) Back to them in the studio, smiling. Direct camera: "Don't wait for the right season. The right season is now." — DPS logo fades in. CTA: START YOUR STORY →

CAPTION "The best time to start was last summer. The next best time is right now. DPS Studios — 7 studios in Business Bay. Link in bio."

PRODUCTION NOTES

OPTION A — CLIENT STORY

Use a real past DPS client. Brief them in 10 minutes. Raw/candid beats polished. Authenticity is the point. Offer a free session in exchange.

OPTION B — SCRIPTED TALENT

If no client available, hire a UGC creator (fiverr.ae or local creators). Give them the script as talking points, not word-for-word. Must feel spontaneous.

Why This Earns Trust

- ✓ Story format = highest average watch-time on Reels (benchmark: 55–70% watch-through vs 25–35% for pure product ads)
- ✓ Specific numbers (12 episodes, 3,000 listeners) are far more believable than vague claims like "grow your audience"
- ✓ Shot inside the DPS studio — the set design is the proof. Premium environment visible throughout
- ✓ Works as retargeting for anyone who visited the website but didn't book — this closes the trust gap

"The Q3 Content Machine" (B2B)

Carousel · 6 slides | B2B / Corporate | Lead Gen — Corporate Package

THE PSYCHOLOGY

Corporate marketing managers and business owners have a quarterly content problem: Q3 summer is dead on their calendar, but Q4 requires a full content pipeline. The smart ones batch-record in summer while the studio is available and team schedules are open. This ad speaks their language: ROI, efficiency, output. It targets decision-makers via Facebook (desktop, aged 28–45) and Instagram (mobile, scrolling between meetings). This is DPS's highest-value booking category.

SLIDE-BY-SLIDE COPY — CORPORATE CAROUSEL

SLIDE 01 "Your Q3 content plan shouldn't sit empty until September." — Business-toned headline. Dark background. Gold accent line. This is the pattern interrupt for any marketing manager who's staring at a blank Q3 calendar.

SLIDE 02 "While your competitors take summer off — you could have 12 podcast episodes ready to publish." — Competitive framing. One sentence per card. Clean typography.

SLIDE 03 "Batch-record a full quarter of content in 2 days." Subtext: "Our team handles recording, editing, mixing, and delivery. Your team shows up and speaks." — Removes the perceived effort barrier.

SLIDE 04 Studio photography: multiple rooms, equipment, professional setup. Caption: "7 broadcast-ready studios in Business Bay. The infrastructure is already here."

SLIDE 05 "Corporate podcast packages include: studio time · professional mixing · branded intro/outro · AI Reels clips · same-day delivery." — Feature list. Business buyers need to see deliverables.

SLIDE 06 "Book a free studio tour this week." CTA: RESERVE A TOUR → — Low commitment ask. Tour = qualified lead conversation. Much easier yes than "book a session."

CAPTION "Q3 doesn't have to be empty. Batch-record your entire quarter of content while the city is quiet. Corporate packages available — studio tour takes 20 minutes. Book this week. Link in bio."

A/B HEADLINE TEST

VARIANT A — FOMO

"Your Q3 content plan shouldn't sit empty until September."

VARIANT B — OUTPUT

"What if you came back in September with 12 episodes already published?"

B2B TARGETING SETUP

- ✓ Job titles: Marketing Manager, Head of Marketing, Marketing Director, Chief Marketing Officer, Founder, CEO (company size 10–200)
- ✓ Interests: Content Marketing, B2B Marketing, Podcast Production, Digital Marketing, Business Strategy
- ✓ Behaviours: Engaged Business Page admins, Frequent travellers (business), Small business owners
- ✓ Geography: Dubai, Abu Dhabi, Sharjah — aged 28–50 — desktop + mobile both active

Why "Book a Tour" Beats "Book a Session"

BENCHMARK: B2B SAAS CRO PRINCIPLE APPLIED TO PHYSICAL SPACE

In B2B sales, the biggest conversion bottleneck is commitment size. Asking a marketing manager to approve a corporate session booking requires a budget sign-off, vendor approval, and scheduling alignment — weeks of friction. Asking them to spend 20 minutes on a free studio tour? That's a no-brainer yes. Close rate from qualified tour to booking is typically 40–60% for premium creative spaces. The tour is not a cost — it is the sales mechanism.

Audience Setup

Three clean audiences. No overlap. Each audience gets its own ad set so we can see performance by segment and scale what works. No broad targeting — we can't afford wasted impressions in summer.

AUDIENCE 1 — THE CREATOR / ENTREPRENEUR

- → Age 25–42, Dubai + Abu Dhabi
- → Interests: podcasting, content creation, personal branding, entrepreneurship
- → Behaviours: Engaged with media/publishing pages
- → Instagram-first (mobile, evening scroll)
- → Ads 01 + 03 (Reels format)

AUDIENCE 2 — THE PROCRASTINATOR

- → Age 28–45, Dubai residents
- → Interests: self-improvement, productivity, side hustle, YouTube/Spotify
- → Lookalike of existing DPS Instagram followers (1–3%)
- → Exclude: people who already booked (pixel event)
- → Ad 02 (Summer Membership Carousel)

AUDIENCE 3 — CORPORATE DECISION-MAKER

- → Age 30–50, Dubai + Abu Dhabi
- → Job: Marketing Manager, CMO, Founder, Head of Comms
- → Company size 10–500 (B2B sweet spot)
- → Facebook desktop + LinkedIn interest overlap
- → Ad 04 (B2B Corporate Carousel)

RETARGETING AUDIENCE — WARM

- → Website visitors last 30 days (pixel)
- → Video viewers 50%+ of any DPS video
- → Instagram profile engagers last 60 days
- → Exclude: existing members, past bookers
- → Ad 03 (Story/Trust closer — best retargeting format)

Budget Allocation

Recommended spend for a 10-week summer campaign (June 1 → Sep 15). Adjust to your actual budget — the percentage split stays the same. Minimum viable budget to get meaningful data: AED 3,000/month.

BUDGET PRINCIPLE

Start all 4 ads simultaneously at equal spend for the first 7 days. At day 7, pause the lowest-performing ad and double the budget of the top performer. Repeat at day 14. By week 3, you are running the winning ad with 60–70% of budget. This is standard Meta media buying practice.

UAE Meta Ads Benchmarks 2025–26

Reference data from Meta's UAE creative industry performance averages, cross-checked against campaigns run for premium lifestyle and B2B service brands in Dubai. Use these to judge performance — not global averages.

METRIC	UAE INDUSTRY AVG	DPS TARGET	WHAT IT MEANS IF BELOW TARGET
CTR (Link)	0.9 – 1.5%	2.0 – 4.0%	Hook is not stopping the scroll — test a new first frame or first line of caption
CPM (AED)	35 – 60	18 – 40	Audience is too broad or creative relevance score is low — tighten targeting
CPC (AED)	4 – 12	2 – 6	Landing page / booking page is killing the conversion — fix the CTA or the page
Video Watch-Through (15s)	25 – 35%	40 – 65%	Opening 3 seconds are not engaging — re-cut the hook, tighter opening
Carousel Swipe Rate	2.5 – 4 slides avg	3.5 – 5 slides avg	Slide 1 is not compelling enough to earn the swipe — sharpen the opening hook
Save Rate (Reels)	0.5 – 1.2%	> 2%	Content is not valuable enough to save — add more insight or identity resonance
CPL — Consumer (AED)	120 – 200	80 – 140	Targeting is off or offer is not clear — simplify the CTA, check audience overlap
CPL — Corporate (AED)	200 – 400	150 – 250	B2B CPL is higher by nature — evaluate cost per tour booked, not just per lead
Frequency (monthly)	3 – 8x	4 – 7x	Above 8: ad fatigue is setting in — refresh the creative or the thumbnail
Conversion Rate (landing page)	1.5 – 3%	3 – 6%	The ad is converting clicks but the page is not converting — separate problem to solve

THE ONE METRIC THAT OVERRIDES ALL OTHERS

Cost per booking (CPB) — not CPL. A lead is worthless until it books. Set up a Meta pixel conversion event on the booking confirmation page, then optimise every ad for that event by week 3. Everything else is a diagnostic. CPB is the verdict.

08 — PRODUCTION

Creative Production Notes

You have 6 staff. Production must be lean. Here is exactly how to produce all 4 ads in a single half-day shoot.

WHAT YOU NEED TO SHOOT

- → Empty Dubai highway / street at 6–7am (Ad 01 hook) — iPhone on a tripod, slow-motion, 15 sec
- → Someone entering the DPS studio, adjusting mic, putting on headphones — studio lights on (Ad 01, 03)
- → Studio overview shots — all 7 studios, equipment close-ups (Ad 04)
- → Person on camera talking (Ad 03 testimonial) — raw, 90 seconds of talking points
- → Phone screen recording showing "podcast stats" (you can mock this in Spotify)

WHAT YOU DO NOT NEED TO SHOOT

- → No fancy camera gear — iPhone 15 Pro is better than a DSLR for Instagram Reels in 2025
- → No professional lighting crew — DPS studios already have broadcast lighting
- → No voice-over artist — music + text overlays carry Ads 01 and 02 entirely
- → No external location hire — every shot is either inside DPS or on a public Dubai street
- → No post-production agency — CapCut or Premiere Rush handles the edits

EDITING INSTRUCTIONS (CAPCUT)

- → All Reels: 9:16 vertical, 1080×1920px minimum
- → Static/Carousel: 1:1 square, 1080×1080px — clean dark background
- → Subtitles on all Reels (85% of Instagram watched without sound)
- → Font: Bold Sans-Serif (DPS gold for key words, white for body text)
- → No transitions — hard cuts only. Transitions signal amateur editing in 2025/26

MUSIC LICENSING (ROYALTY-FREE)

- → Epidemic Sound (subscription ~$15/mo) — best for Dubai business/premium feel
- → Search tags: "cinematic dark minimal", "building tension instrumental"
- → Do NOT use trending IG audio for conversion ads — it distracts from the message
- → Keep music at -18db so it sits under text/visuals, not over them
- → Fade out in last 3 seconds of Reels — creates a clean moment for the CTA
